FORT ASTORIA
DESIRING TO DOMINATE THE AREAS EXPLORED BY LEWIS AND CLARK, JOHN JACOB ASTOR SENT EXPEDITIONS OVERLAND AND BY SEA TO SEIZE THE MOUTH OF THE COLUMBIA. THE SCHOONER TONQUIN ARRIVED FIRST AND WORK WAS BEGUN ON THIS SITE APRIL 12, 1811. "THE FOLIAGE WAS BUDDING. WE IMAGINED OURSELVES IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN. BUILDINGS WERE OF BOARDS TIGHTLY COVERED AND ROOFED WITH CEDAR BARK." LATER PALISADES WERE RAISED AGAINST THE INDIANS. HERE GATHERED ADVENTURERS FROM ALL THE VAST WILDERNESS; HERE, IN 1814, LIVED THE OREGON COUNTRY'S FIRST WHITE WOMAN, THE ENGLISH BARMAID, JANE BARNES; HERE WERE THE TRUE BEGINNINGS OF OUR STOCK RAISING, FARMING AND SHIPBUILDING. THE PROPERTY WAS SOLD TO THE NORTH WEST COMPANY TO AVOID CAPTURE DURING THE WAR OF 1812 AND WAS OPERATED UNTIL ITS ABANDONMENT IN 1823 WHEN THE HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY MOVED HEADQUARTERS TO FORT VANCOUVER. THE BUILDINGS DECAYED AND MODERN ASTORIA ROSE UPON THE SITE.
